

JOCELYN Y. HOWARD

JOCELYNYHOWARD@GMAIL.COM
(757)477-7588

EDUCATION

- 2014 Edinboro University of Pennsylvania
MFA in Ceramics
- 2010-2011 University of Florida, School of Art + Art History
Post-Baccalaureate Student
- 2007 Bob Jones University, School of Fine Arts
Bachelor of Fine Arts, Three Dimensional Studio Art

WORK EXPERIENCE

- August 2016 – Present Powell, WY
Northwest College
Adjunct Faculty
- Taught beginning students in basic handbuilding techniques including pinch, coil, soft and hard slab, extruded forms, as well as firing techniques such as pit firing, raku, and electric firing.
- September 2014 – August 2016 Red Lodge, MT
Red Lodge Clay Center
Long Term Resident Artist
- Installed and de-installed gallery exhibitions. Unpacked, photographed, processed, uploaded, and sold artwork online and in-store. Maintained gallery, studio, and long term and short term residences. Instructed community members of all ages in ceramic classes and oversaw the firing of their work.
- August 2013 – May 2014 Edinboro, PA
Bruce Gallery
Graduate Assistant
- Co-Curated, installed and de-installed shows, contacted artists, photographed openings, and maintained gallery and website.
- August 2012 – May 2013 Edinboro, PA
Ceramics Studio
Graduate Assistant
- Loaded, unloaded, and fired bisque, cone six reduction, and cone one kilns, and cleaned studios.
- September 2009 – July 2010 Penland, NC
Penland School of Crafts Gallery and Visitor Center
Part Time Gallery Employee
- Sold, packed, shipped, and displayed handmade artwork, maintained the gallery space, and greeted and informed visitors about Penland School of Crafts.